

Emmet Ryan – College Park, MD

Emmet Ryan is a senior at the University of Maryland majoring in Information Science. He was a FRC student on Team 1389 and has served as an official scorer and referee at official and offseason FRC events.

Professionally, he has worked as an intern at the Department of Housing and Urban Development and the Government Accountability Office, and has an interest in the interaction between data analysis and public policy.

In his free time, he reads science fiction and history books, plays video games such as Kerbal Space Program, and is a fan of data journalism such as FiveThirtyEight and The Upshot.