

Brendan Clark is a mentor of FTC team 4924, the Red Beard Pandas, and FLL team 46108, the Night Owls. He is a full-time student at New River Community College majoring in computer science. He is also lucky enough to work part time at Automation Creations Inc., a programming software for larger companies. He has been an involved member of FIRST for a total of seven years and looks forward to many more to come.