

Katelyn (they/she) is a senior geographic information science major at the University of Maryland. Professionally, they work for NASA ARSET as a student database manager and for the University of Maryland doing carbon sequestration research. Kate has volunteered with FLL, FTC and FRC as a lead queuer and judge but they will fill any role asked of them. Outside of volunteering they enjoy origami and playing with their dog Ash.